Wynn Resorts contributes $25,000 to help enact common-sense gun laws in Nevada.

Las Vegas (October 30, 2019) - Today, Save Lives Nevada, an independent nonpartisan organization founded in the wake of the October 1 shooting, announced that Wynn Resorts is contributing $25,000 toward enacting common-sense gun violence prevention laws in the State of Nevada. The funds will allow Save Lives Nevada to expand education efforts ahead of the 2021 Legislative Session.

The 2019 Legislative Session produced positive reforms that respect the rights of law-abiding Nevadans, while closing loopholes that too easily put firearms in the hands of dangerous individuals. The group will build upon its work by educating voters, lawmakers, and stakeholders on the positive impacts of enacting gun violence prevention legislation in the 2021 Legislative Session.

Regarding their support of Save Lives Nevada, Matt Maddox, CEO of Wynn Resorts, said:

“We believe we have an important role to play on issues related to the security and safety for our employees and their families. In addition, nothing is more critical to the future of Las Vegas tourism than guest safety. That is why we joined the coalition at Save Lives Nevada to work toward practical, common-sense policies preventing gun violence.”

Andrew Woods, Executive Director of Save Lives Nevada, said:

“From the workplace, to schools, to places of worship, senseless gun violence continues to impact everyday Nevadans and their families. We thank Wynn Resorts and Mr. Maddox for joining our cause and helping to build upon the progress we made during the 2019 legislative session to prevent future tragedies. In memory of the ones we have lost, enough is enough.”

About Save Lives Nevada

Save Lives Nevada (501c4) is made up of former advisory board members who supported the successful 2016 campaign to enact background checks on all gun sales (ballot question 1). Founded in the wake of October 1st, Save Lives Nevada successfully advocated for several measures passed in the 2019 Nevada Legislative Session and continues to educate lawmakers and stakeholders in Nevada on the popularity and rationality of common-sense gun violence prevention measures.
